SPECIAL CONDITIONS OF SUPERVISION

The defendant must comply with the following special conditions as ordered by the Court and implemented by the U.S. Probation Office:

- 1) The defendant must pay any financial penalty that is imposed by this judgment.
- 2) For as long as the defendant owes any fines or restitution ordered as part of the instant offense, the defendant must provide the United States Probation Office with access to any requested financial information.
- 3) For as long as the defendant owes any fines or restitution ordered as part of the instant offense, the defendant must not incur new credit charges or open additional lines of credit without the approval of the United States Probation Office unless the defendant is in compliance with the installment payment schedule.
- 4) The defendant must immediately report to U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement and follow all their instructions and reporting requirements until any deportation proceedings are completed.
- 5) The defendant must seek proper documentation from U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement authorizing the defendant to work in the United States.
- 6) If the defendant is removed or deported from the United States, the defendant must not reenter unless the defendant obtains prior permission from the Secretary of Homeland Security. If the defendant is removed or deported from the United States, the defendant will not be on “active supervision.” If the defendant reenters the United States during the term of supervised release, the defendant must report to the nearest United States Probation Office within 72 hours of the date the defendant reenters the United States. If the defendant remains in the United States during the term of supervised release, the defendant must report to the United States Probation Office in the district to which the defendant is released within 72 hours of release from custody.

Upon a finding of a violation of supervision, I understand the Court may: (1) revoke supervision; (2) extend the term of supervision; and/or (3) modify the condition of supervision.

These conditions have been read to me. I fully understand the conditions and have been provided a copy of them.
